St. Johns, Thursday, May 21.

ARTICLES of incorporation of the Chiricahua Cattle Company, an organization with a capital of $500,000, have been filed with the territorial secretary.

PHIL. MONTAGUE, formerly editor of the Southwestern Stockman, has brought suit against the owners of that paper for false arrest and imprisonment. He places his damages at $10,000.

Texas Cattlemen do not relish the recent quarantine laws passed by most of the states and territories, against the introduction of Texas cattle from infected districts, and predict that ere long the barrier will be removed.

INDIAN COMMISSIONER ATKINS contemplates making a three months tour of the United States, and will visit the different Indian tribes with a view of ascertaining their condition and actual needs. He will be accompanied by a Congressional committee.

ON account of the injudicious criticisms of the Southwestern Stockman Theo. F. White, the recently appointed Territorial Cattle Inspector, has declined to qualify for that position. The Territorial Association has recommended that the Governor appoint George Frisk to fill the vacancy.

THE protest presented to President Cleveland by the Mormon leaders, asking that the law against polygamy be not enforced in that territory for the reason that it is their religion and belief, is a disgrace to civilization and an insult to the Government. It is a plea of a pack of tyrants and robbers, that they may be allowed to practice lechery and licentiousness under the pretext of religious devotion. The claim, that polygamy is part of the Mormon religion, is false. Polygamy is not practiced or believed in by the original Mormons, the Josephites, but only by the followers of that great fraud and woman debaucher Brigham Young, and their especial delight to-day is to rob women of their virtue and turn their homes into brothels. The sooner the Mormons are made to understand that this country is run according to the laws of the United States and not by the dictates of a fanatical priesthood, the less will be their liability to fill the cells of our penitentiaries.

A STREAM of Mormon emigrants is pouring into Arizona from Utah. The saints are flying from the wrath to come in Utah, and should be made to move on beyond the confines of Uncle Sam. If they are allowed to overrun Arizona that fair territory will be shunned by respectable settlers. — Albuquerque Journal.

We endorse the above sentiments from the Journal, as it states the feelings of all law abiding Arizonians on the subject. As near as can be estimated over 2000 Mormons from Utah have settled in the territory during the past year, which fact alone has done more to retard her progress, and settlement by respectable people than can possibly be imagined. Intelligent, thrifty emigrants shun Arizona as soon as they hear that it is partially settled by Mormons, for fear of a repetition of the Mountain Meadow massacre, or being dealt with a la Dr. Robinson. Truly the Mormons have sullied the fair name of Arizona.

THE past week has been fruitful of events that are hastening polygamous Mormonism into the grave of eternal oblivion, say what they may as believers; print, publish and send broadcast over the land and over the world at large to their dupes, to those the apostolic priesthood would inveigle into their polygamous net, to the contrary notwithstanding. The appeal made personally to the President during the past week shows clearly the impudence of the cunning ones of the Mormon church, and the melancholy ignorance of the sycophants and deaf, dumb and totally blind followers of the monstrous outfit. By making the application, the head devils would impress upon their followers, their slaves, the idea of executive importance and power. If Cannon or any other member of the committee have any knowledge of Republican institutions, they know that unless the polygamous church brings forth fruit meet for repentance the President has no power to grant the petition. He has been placed on the highest seat of authority to execute the laws and he must do it, and we believe he will do it, whether the charge is unlawful cohabitation, polygamy or bigamy.

That is the civil law that pertains to the courts of the United States, and it is as much the duty of the President to see that the laws are faithfully enforced as to perform any other official act. The polygamists would have mono-manical followers believe that the institution is of God and that Jehovah himself stoops over the battlements of Heaven and tells the apostles who shall and who shall not go into polygamy, or starts up Michael and commands him to carry a note containing a revelation to Taylor and have it promulgated at Salt Lake and from there to all the world; believe that Michael lands inside the adobe wall that surrounds Taylor's house, and wakes up the President by one tremendous blast from out his bugle horn. Now let us imagine Michael in the discharge of his duty. He does not feel it necessary to be over polite or deferential to any earthly potentate, so he salutes him in terse sentences: "Here's a note from the throne; go for it!" Taylor takes a side blink at the archangel as if not certain of his position and then bursts the sealing wax and reads:

Tell Romney to fool no more time over the Orion Era, but hasten to Sonora, bloodhounds, etc., 'a word to the wise.' Milner is tired of Provo and his multiplied sweetness in that direction. He will do the Chinese work on the paper until this thing blows over. Hustle up Bishop Harris and Bro. Eaton; get word to Fish, over to Woodruff, urge them to hump themselves, the Gentiles have got the dead medicine on them for polygamy, and if they don't want to sweat it all out in Yuma they had better not tarry around Apache County.

Where is Jesse N. Smith now? he that was President of Eastern Arizona Stake; have not seen him for months, he has not been very devoted lately. Perhaps he's smelt a mice and don't want advice.

Glad to hear that old man Ellsworth is back in Show Low. Let him go to Yuma and become prepared for a mighty long summer. Bluff Lot Smith, he had better not show up for two or three years; his derelictions are a little too fresh in the memory of citizens who are likely to be empaneled on future juries.

Now these are the movements made by the first men and leaders of the Church of Latter Day Saints. Where can there be found any man on the globe with one iota of common sense that can for a moment believe that He who rules the universe and governs its motions will employ His messengers, His high archangels in such service. The fools who have no minds of their own may take it in for awhile; they who have advantageous positions in labor, trade or commerce may pretend to take it so long as it will suit their purposes. And they who preach polygamy will do it for the gratification of the power it gives over the ignorant, and by the money that comes by the sweat of the toiler to their well filled coffers. Poor, poor fools.

THE late legislative assembly of this territory passed among other queer bills an act creating a Board of Pardon Commissioners, consisting of the Governor, Attorney General and one member of the Prison Commission. This Board met in Prescott a few days ago, pardoned five convicts and commuted the sentence of one to life imprisonment. This commutation of sentence was in the case of Fred. J. Glover convicted, in Prescott, last June of one of the most atrocious and cold-blooded murders ever recorded in the annals of crime. This monster in human form knocked down a poor defenseless woman, and amid her pitiful appeals for mercy, jumped upon her and with his boot-heels stamped her into eternity. The story as told by witnesses in the court-room would have brought tears to the eyes of the most hardened criminal. This murderer was given a fair trial; found guilty and sentenced to be hanged; his case was appealed to the supreme court of the territory and the judgement of death was affirmed. Having taken advantage of all legal rights under the laws, without success, the Board of Pardon Commissioners then step in and commute his sentence to life imprisonment, which virtually means that in a few years he will apply for, and be granted a pardon by some future philanthropic Board. We would again advise that the Board of Pardons meet some dark night and adjourn sine die.

At Seroia, New Mexico, a secluded valley about twenty-five miles south-east of the military post of Fort Wingate there exists a Mormon rendezvous; a den of vice and immorality that should be wiped out of existence. The prince of this black-hole of Calcutta is Ernest Tietjen, a low degraded polygamist, who, with his two wives, and horde of followers are leading carnal lives debasing to the lowest beasts in the animal kingdom. Why this polygamist scoundrel and his followers have been allowed to practice their lewd and licentious habits undisturbed we fail to understand, except, probably, from their isolated situation. Their crimes have not been known to the authorities, but now that they have been made public there is no excuse for this disgrace to civilization to continue longer. Buckle on your armor New Mexico, and sweep out this cess-pool of iniquity as offal is swept from a slaughter-house, or, before long, you will be as badly overrun with these pests as we are in Apache county.

THE Albuquerque Journal makes the following pointed remarks in regard to the suppression of polygamy: "The Salt Lake Herald will soon find out that the United States can wipe polygamy or any other crime from any portion of its territory. A nation that could put away the crime of slavery is equal to any emergency in the calendar of crime."

STOCK NOTES.

(New Mexico Stock Grower.)

There are a large number of fine bulls passing through New Mexico at present destined for Arizona.

Parties intending to bring cattle into New Mexico must notify the Inspector at the point of entry before crossing the line, under penalty of $5000.

The Nathan Hall Cattle Company of Socorro county, have purchased in Texas 5000 head of stock cattle at ten dollars around, and are now on the road to their ranch in Socorro county.

C. W. Kennedy, who ranches in Valencia county, has just turned loose on his ranch a number of fine bulls. He knows how to make a success of the cattle business.

(Tucson Tailings.)

J. P. Martin a New Mexico stockman is at the Grand Central. Mr. Martin is going through to California to secure pasture for a large number of cattle, that will be driven through, on account of the high freights charged by the Southern Pacific. Mr. Martin says there are 20,000 to 30,000 cattle in the district he comes from, ready to be driven through.

Arizona is rather peculiarly situated in regard to a market for her cattle. The eastern states can purchase all they need nearer home, while California has a cheap supply to draw upon in Oregon and Washington Territory. Under these circumstances our stockmen must soon begin to consider the advisability of adopting some refrigerating method of shipping, by which freight and a heavy shrinkage may be saved. Such a course can only be made successful by united action. It is here that the great benefit of associations become evident. Those Arizona cattlemen who do not yet belong to an association should lose no time in joining one. They will strengthen both themselves and the associations by doing so.

THE polygamist must go—to the pen. So says Judge Zane, of Utah.
